

Artist of Distinction

The Wildlife Art of Daniel Smith

In September 2007, during the Eiteljorg Museum's annual Quest for the West Art Show & Sale, Daniel Smith was selected as the 2007 Quest Artist of Distinction, an award that honors the artist with a one-person exhibition. The exhibition, with over 30 recent works, was presented at the 2008 Quest for the West Art Show & Sale at the Eiteljorg Museum, September 5, 2008.

"My paintings are a reflection of many years of field work and my passion for the natural world. My objective is to share my passion through a scientifically accurate, realistic painting while maintaining artistic integrity." —Daniel Smith
